

JULIUS CAESAR – WORD LIST

- agreement = two or more people promise to do something
- although = while
- ancient = old; a long time ago
- battle = a fight between armies in a war
- B.C. = before the birth of Christ
- capture = to catch a person and keep them as prisoner
- career = a job that you have for a long period in your life
- conquer = to take control of a country by fighting
- conspiracy = a secret plan by a group of people
- consul = an elected public official in ancient Rome
- dagger = a short, pointed knife that is used as a weapon
- empire = a group of countries ruled by one person
- enemy = a person who is against you and not your friend
- finances = everything that has to do with money
- flee - fled = to escape to a safe place
- found - founded = create, make
- government = the elected people who rule a country
- head = leader
- honored = here: liked and admired by many people
- influence = to affect the way a person grows up
- in office = to serve the public in a government organization
- meanwhile = while something else is happening
- navy = many ships that fight for a country
- officer = someone who is in a high position in an organization or the government
- permanent head = a person who rules for their whole life
- politician = a person who is in politics or the government
- popular = liked by many people
- prove = show
- public = the normal people
- public office = organization in the government
- public speaking = to speak freely in front of many people
- rival = here: enemy
- rule = govern
- set up = organize; create
- side with = to help a person or be for them
- statesman = a leader who is admired and respected by everyone
- support = help
- treasury = all the money that a country gets from the people
- tribe = a group of people who have the same language and traditions
- triumvirate = three people holding power
- unwilling = not wanting to do something
- victory = to win against someone